Hemlock Hollow Inn & Paint Creek Cafe is hosting - "National Trails Day Fundraiser for Camp Creek Tornado Victims" on June 4, 2011 from 1pm till 8pm. All your help is needed to help make this a success! Go to www.hemlockhollow.weebly.com and click on National trails day button to see all what we are doing. You don't have to be present to win the duck race so please buy a duck or two or just come on out and join the fun while helping your fellow neighbor out.

Loads of Love is doing laundry for tornado victims. Drop off your laundry one day and pick it up the next day (unless we get lots and lots all at the same time, we will get it back to you the next day). There is not a limit on the amount of laundry you can bring, and you may bring things more than once. Call (423) 823-8961 if you have questions. Drop-off location is Andrew Johnson Insurance on Tusculum Blvd., next door to Pizza Hut, between 10 am and 3 pm., Monday through Friday. Other arrangements, including pickup and delivery of laundry, may be made by calling 423-823-8961.

National Trails Day at Hemlock Hollow will be June 4th, 2011 from 1 to 8 PM. A Blessing & BBQ dinner will begin at 2pm until, music from 1-8, cake walk ages 12 & under, silent auction starting at 1, treasure hunt ages 13 & up, storytelling, Duck Race down the Creek, 3-5 minute talks about tornado victims, trails, tourism, fire prevention, demonstrations, & Camp fire at 7pm, plus more. We need volunteers for music, storytelling, auction items, donations, workers to help park vehicles, & other items needed for the BBQ so that all monies can go to the victims. All your help will be greatly appreciated. Call (423) 787-0917 for more information.

The Emergency Management Agency of Greeneville and Greene County and Harris Memorial Rural Baptist Church are accepting donations for Greene County storm victims, and Freewill Baptist Family Ministries Children's home, located near Camp Creek Elementary School, is taking donations of various emergency supplies.

Ride Sponsored by SPIRITWHEEL ALLEGIANCE INC., a Federal 501(c)(3) Non-Profit Charitable Organization.

The Washington County, Virginia Sheriff's Office support auxiliary is in need of more supplies. They're located at the Old Glade Presbyterian Church. They tell us they need large black trash bags, liquid cleaners, work gloves, mops and brooms, and bar oil for chainsaws.

A group is going to be rebuilding houses this weekend to those who are not insured. They have several contractors coming from all areas to help at no charge but supplies are needed. They are in need of doors, windows, shingles, and metal roofing materials. Call Renee Taylor at Door of Hope Fellowship for more information at (276) 206-1608.

The Sugar Grove Volunteer Fire Department is taking up donations of nonperishable foods, cleaning supplies and other necessities for the tornado victims in Chilhowie and Glade Spring Virginia. They will be taking these donations at the fire department all week long. For more information of take in times please contact Rodney Surber, Jr. at (276) 677-8006 or by email at redfiveo2@hotmail.com. All donations will also be appreciated.

Joy Baptist Church on Farris Drive is offering a variety of supplies.

Glade Spring Baptist Church on Monte Vista Drive is offering showers and laundry services. There are also a lot of supplies in the Christian Life Center.
